Two Arrested in Credit Card Fraud Investigation

Grass Valley, Ca. – Nevada County Sheriff Patrol Deputies made two arrests overnight following an investigation into stolen mail from a Lime Kiln Road residence that occurred on 4/14/2023. The victim reported the fraud on 4/25/23 at approximately 3:30 pm after discovering that a new Home Depot credit card issued to the victim reflected multiple fraudulent purchases. The victim was able to provide copies of the transactions along with possible suspect information leading to a probationer's residence in the 17000 block of Patricia Way in Alta Sierra.

Deputies responded to the Patricia Way residence at approximately 1:00 am this morning to conduct a probation search at the home of the suspects, identified as 22-year-old Shayla Rogers and 34-year-old Michael Price. During the search, deputies located and recovered over $2,500 worth of stolen property matching the fraudulent transactions on the victim's stolen Home Depot card.

Deputies arrested Shayla Rogers for Possession of Stolen Property and Identity Theft, and Michael Price for Possession of Stolen Property and Violation of Probation. Both were booked into the Wayne Brown Correctional Facility.
