This class is for CAPE members and all interested law enforcement personnel

Course Description: Did you know that there are laws in place for peace officers to seize firearms from those placed on a mental health hold or evaluation and further laws and tools that prevent those who are mentally ill from purchasing firearms? This class will cover the following topics:

- Firearm Laws (including illegal assault rifles and ghost gun information)
- Gun Violence Restraining Orders (GVRO's)
- Tarasoff case law and implemented law
- Firearm prohibitions and how to research them using CLETS/MHFPS
- Case study examples
- Report preparations for filing charges
- Search Warrant preparation
- Active Shooter discussions/preventative methods
- Mental Health Laws

Instructor: Jason Hunter is a retired Police Officer from the Desert Hot Springs Police Department (10 years) and is currently an Investigator with the San Diego County Sheriff's Department's Property Investigations Unit where he has been assigned for the last 4 years. In this assignment, investigators conduct investigations on mental health arrests where subjects are screened for firearms/firearm prohibitions and when needed, firearms are seized and is currently an Investigator with the San Diego County Sheriff's Department's Property Investigations Unit where he has been assigned for the last 4 years.
