Good Afternoon Everyone,

Another friendly reminder to please register for SAREX, there are still spots available!

We look forward to seeing you all there and know this will be another great year in Tulare County!

Please see information below

Cal OES is proud to announce the annual SAREX – California's Search and Rescue Exercise which will be hosted this year by the Tulare County Sheriff's Office.

This event will take place Friday September 8th to Sunday September 10th, 2023

Check-In Information

Check-In will begin on Friday, September 8th, starting at 1200-1600 at the Springville Rodeo Grounds.

Check-in will resume at SCICON from 1600-1800. No early arrivals are authorized. All attendees will receive an email the week of with late arrival instructions.

ADDRESSES:

Springville Rodeo Grounds address: 34902 Hwy 190 Springville, CA 93265

SCICON address: 41569 Bear Creek Dr. Springville, CA 93265

Lodging

SCICON offers: cabins, trailer/RV parking, and tent spots on site. Trailer, RV, and tents spots are limited and will be available on a first come first serve basis. You can select your lodging on the Event Registration form. If you wish to stay off site or are only attending for the day, please indicate so on your registration form. We will try and place agencies together as best as we can. Please note, if you select Trailer/RV, your Trailer or RV must be under 40ft and disconnected from your vehicle upon arrival.

Registration

Registration fee is $120 (includes: Classes, food, lodging, and T-Shirt)

If you are a 2023 SAREX Instructor OR a TCSO SAR volunteer/deputy, there is no registration fee. All other attendees will be required to pay a $120 registration fee prior to check-in.
