El Dorado County Sheriff Office
200 Industrial Drive, Placerville, Ca 95667

September 6, 2023 Tuition: $100 0800-1700

CA STC 10052-02724090 CA POST 9590-21652-23019

THIS CLASS IS NOT A USE OF FORCE CLASS. IT IS A CLASS ON HOW TO WRITE THE REPORT FOR THE OFFICERS INVOLVED IN THE INCIDENT AND WHAT SUPERVISORS AND COMMAND STAFF SHOULD SEE IN THE REPORT AND THEIR LIABILITY.

PAST STUDENTS ARE WANTING THIS TO BE A 2-DAY CLASS AFTER TAKING IT. Students will receive the new 102 page manual.

Purpose:

The purpose of this course is to establish a strong framework that will enable students to document any use of force properly and thoroughly while in the execution of their duties. The lessons learned in this course will provide students with the ability to continuously hone their skills in the art of report writing, specifically the use of force. This class is designed for line staff and Command Staff at all levels.

- Developing a consistent framework to document use of force incidents
- Organizing all verbal and non-verbal actions into a document
- Learning to recall use of force incidents cognitively
- Translating the details that influenced your decision making

Course Objectives:

Students will:

1. Assess and recognize where their use of force reporting is deficient.
2. Learn to recall use of force incidents cognitively.
3. Learn to organize their thoughts and translate them into a document.
4. Better understand the importance of detail.

5. Identify their professional and personal experiences and training and how they affect use of force decision making.
6. Understand how to use their agency's use of force policy more constructively.
7. Better identify and understand the use of evidence for report writing.

Today's environment requires law enforcement to increase their skills in every aspect to better protect themselves, their organization, and the public's trust. Complete and proper documentation is the cornerstone of all law enforcement organizations, so it is imperative that all Use of Force documentation provides the details needed to recreate the event and protect all stakeholders involved.

 It is recommended students bring their organization's use of force policy, a laptop, or a tablet to write reports during the exercises.

TUITION is $100.00
