

Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault for First Responders

Domestic Violence for First Responders

This one-day, 8-hour course is designed for patrol officers and supervisors responsible for the preliminary response to domestic violence calls. This interactive training will provide students with skills necessary to safely and successfully handle these calls for service. A dynamic and multi-disciplinary team of instructors will provide case examples, facilitate discussion around common challenges and provide strategies for overcoming those issues.

The course meets the continued professional training hours and the domestic violence mandate under PC 13519(e), and required Advanced Officer Training.

Sexual Assault for First Responders

Sexual assault calls present some unique and difficult challenges to law enforcement. This one day (8 hour) course provides first responding officers with the tools to overcome the unique and difficult challenges in conducting effective sexual assault investigations. A multidisciplinary team of instructors will provide officers with the skills necessary to understand the law and the unique victimization associated with this crime. Whether your agency has established a Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) or not, this course will provide strategies for officers to conduct a thorough investigation, enhance victim participation and increase the likelihood of prosecution.
