

Becoming a Leader in Law Enforcement

Add to assignment

Record Course Credit

Course Resources

Hide

Mark featured

Completion status

Completed

About this course

This course presents practical leadership concepts and strategies to officers and deputies. These topics are intended to enhance the quality of policing by describing universal approaches to leadership that line-level officers and deputies can use immediately. Effective personal leadership supports problem-solving and decision-making processes, principled policing and community-oriented policing efforts, and promotional aspirations.

Course details

- 🕒 1 hour of training credit
- 👤 Owned by Lexipol Learning
- 👍 Liked by 90 users
- 📖 Topics: Ethics, Police Leadership, Additional LE Non-Certified Courses, California POST Approved Courses
- 🏠 Training tags: 2022 New Courses P1A/C1A, Alaska POST Approved, California Post Approved, Colorado POST Approved, Georgia Post Approved, Maryland POST Approved, Michigan MCOLES Approved, Minnesota POST Approved, Missouri POST CLEE Approved, Nevada POST Approved, North Dakota POST Approved, Oklahoma CLEET Approved, South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy - P1A Approved, Tennessee POST Approved, Texas Eligible for TCOLE Credit

Review completed course