FIELD TRAINING OFFICER

Course fulfills the POST training requirements for F.T.O.'s and personnel with the responsibility of training law enforcement officers. It focuses on the core functions of a F.T.O. which are to Teach, Evaluate and Document (T.E.D.). The instructional techniques used focus on the modern science of learning and specific techniques to build the student's teaching skills. Students are given several opportunities to see positive and negative examples of 1) training and counseling trainees and 2) writing D.O.R.'s and Remedial Training Plans (R.T.P). Students also are shown specifically how to apply the Standard Evaluation Guideline rating scales. They are given several opportunities in the course to teach, counsel and evaluate mock trainees and complete D.O.R.s and R.T.P.'s. Other topics include legal and liability issues for California police officers. This course provides updated legislative content of Penal Code Section 835a.
