Wallis Annenberg PetSpace

Presents the 11th Annual

Animal Welfare CEO Forum

We are pleased to again bring together animal welfare leaders in California for an all-inclusive, executive-level experience. Limited to the president, CEO, executive director, or animal care and control director of CalAnimals' shelter and animal control agency member organizations, this invitation-only event focuses on improving the welfare of our companion animals by joining and strengthening the animal welfare leaders. Come prepared to exchange ideas, socialize, and leave with a renewed sense of purpose and direction.

January 27-29, 2025

Monday, 6:00pm, through Wednesday, noon

Embassy Suites SFO Waterfront

Burlingame, CA

- Attendance is limited to CEOs only, from current CalAnimals' shelter and animal control agency member organizations.
- Registration Fee: $600, with the remaining costs covered by the Annenberg Foundation, Maddie's Fund, and our other generous sponsors.
- This is an all-inclusive event.
 - All meals, sessions, evening events, and hotel room for Monday and Tuesday nights are included.
 - Plan to stay with us at the hotel.
- We encourage you to register early, then book your travel. We expect to sell out.

Two great ways to help California's animals
